GENERAL INFORMATION

HISTORY OF THE COLLEGE

The 1963 North Carolina General Assembly passed the Community College Act creating a system of comprehensive community colleges, technical institutes, and industrial education centers under the State Board of Education.

The 1979 General Assembly rewrote the Community College Act and authorized a new board for community colleges, effective January 1, 1981.

In January, 1964, the Caldwell Community College and Technical Institute was tentatively approved by the State Board of Education. On March 28,1964, the people of Caldwell County approved the college through a bond vote of $600,000 for the purchase of a site and construction of facilities and up to 5 cents tax authorization for operating the college. Final approval by the State Board of Education followed on April 2, 1964.

The first president was selected that fall and began work in November,1964. A permanent site was selected for the institute in January, 1965. New facilities were occupied in September, 1967.

On July 1, 1970, Caldwell Technical Institute was authorized by the North Carolina General Assembly through the State Board of Education to offer college transfer courses. Subsequently, Caldwell Technical Institute changed its name to Caldwell Community College and Technical Institute.

A referendum seeking approval of the issuance of $800,000 in bonds by Caldwell County was proposed and voted upon on December 7, 1971. The local money was to match a federal grant of $799,306 under the Appalachian Region Act. This referendum was passed by more than a 2 to 1 majority. In 1973, the institution received $500,000 of state construction funds from an appropriation by the North Carolina General Assembly. These funds enabled the trustees to increase the size of the college by about 77,000 square feet. The new buildings were occupied during the 1974-75 school year.

In 1979 the Caldwell County Commissioners authorized an expenditure of $600,000 to match a proposed Appalachian Regional Grant of $400,000 to construct additional facilities. This new 19,000 square foot building, housing vocational shops and the Life Skills Center, was completed in 1982. The facilities at CCC & TI now total 162,374 square feet.

In September, 1973, Caldwell Community College and Technical Institute established the Watauga Division to provide limited credit and more extensive noncredit offerings to the citizens of Watauga County.

ACCREDITATION

Caldwell Community College and Technical Institute is regionally accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools.

Diploma, associate in applied science, and associate in arts and science programs have been approved by the North Carolina Department of Community Colleges and the State Board of Education.

The radiologic technology program is accredited by the Council on Allied Health, Education and Accreditation of the American Medical Association. The nursing program is approved by the North Carolina State Board of Nursing. The nuclear medicine program is accredited by the Joint Review Committee of Education in Nuclear Medicine Technology of the Council on Allied Health Education and Accreditation. The occupational therapy assistant program is approved by the American Occupational Therapy Association.

INSTITUTIONAL MISSION

Caldwell Community College and Technical Institute, serving Caldwell and Watauga counties and operating within the legal framework set by the North Carolina General Assembly, opens its doors to any adult desiring to learn. Each student is offered the opportunity and is encouraged to develop his intellectual, social, occupational, civic, cultural, and physical potential. The college is committed to providing quality, inexpensive, continuing educational opportunities to meet the needs of adults at facilities located within commuting distance.

Caldwell Community College and Technical Institute practices the "open door" admissions philosophy and, therefore, serves students from varied backgrounds and levels of achievement. The student body is a diverse group in terms of age, socioeconomic background, academic ability, and goals.

In keeping with the general mission of Caldwell Community College and Technical Institute, the board of trustees, the staff, and the faculty have adopted certain generalized goals. These are to:

- provide effective instruction to all who enroll;
- provide the opportunity for individuals to complete elementary or secondary school by offering adult basic education and high school equivalency programs;
- provide a variety of one-year vocational, two-year technical and two-year college transfer programs that reflect the changing needs of business, industry, professional, and public services;
- provide general interest courses that meet adult education and community service needs;

- provide guidance and counseling services to assist students in developing an understanding of themselves;
- provide cultural programs and educational services for community enrichment;
- provide assistance and information to stimulate interest in education throughout the community.

These generalized goals form a framework which is further defined and crystalized in the institution's long-range planning goals and is supported by numerous administrative pronouncements.

CHARACTERISTICS OF THE SERVICE AREA

Caldwell Community College and Technical Institute is located on a 78-acre tract of land in Hudson, North Carolina. Since the college is on Highway 321, it is accessible to the population centers of Lenoir (5 miles), Granite Falls (5 miles), and Hickory (10 miles).

The Watauga instruction facility and administrative offices are located at Highway 421 W. and 105 By-Pass in Boone, North Carolina.

The service area of the institution includes some 100,000 people with approximately 68,000 people residing in Caldwell County and 32,000 in Watauga County. During the past ten years, Caldwell County's population grew by 20% while Watauga County experienced a 35% growth rate. The population consists of 5.5 percent minorities in Caldwell County and 1.8 percent minoritites in Watauga County. Approximately 49% of these counties' population is male and 51% female.[1]

Caldwell County's economy is based largely upon the furniture industry. In recent years, however, there has been more diversification of industry. Other major industries include textiles, hosiery, paper and metals manufacturing.

Tourism and service industries are an important part of Watauga County's economy. Agriculture, lumber and wood manufacturing are other important means of income in the county.

Unemployment rates in the area normally fall below the state and national averages. However, fluctuations in the furniture market have a direct effect on Caldwell County's employment stability. According to the local offices of the Employment Security Commission, the unemployment rate in 1980 was 9.0 for Caldwell County, 5.9 for Watauga County, and 6.6 for North Carolina.

The 1980 per capita income was approximately $7,600 in Caldwell County, $6,900 in Watauga County, and $7,800 in North Carolina.[2]
